

First year Mechanical
Make-Up Exam
Model Answer

Subject: English
Year: 2014-2015
Time: 2 hours
Pages: 2

Part I- Text Book

Answer the following questions:

- 1- Acids can be classified into two groups: organic acids and inorganic acids
 - 2- Sulphuric acid is dibasic
 - 3- A number of applications of GPS that are associated with navigation are like tracking systems for monitoring delivery vehicles and finding stolen cars.
 - 4- A space elevator could be used to raise things into space.
 - 5- Pressure is measured by the force divided by the area
 - 6- To resist the sideway force exerted by the liquid in these containers.
 - 7- A) Descend = climb down B) Raise = lift/ make something go up
 - 8- (True)
 - 9- The measuring unit of weight is Newton.
- Give words or expressions similar in meaning to: A- Connecting B- Attached
- 10- A setting on the GPS (prevents/ allows/ ensures) it to detect the movement.

Part II: Reading comprehension

A) Answer the following questions:

1. Banks and telecommunications networks are working on new systems to replace old-fashioned bills and coins with smart cashcards. Now you can put or take your money from your account through the Automatic Teller Machine (ATM).
2. Because it was hardly commonplace.
3. In 1974.

B) Choose the correct answer from a, b, c or d:

4. c) Great change
5. b) Smart cards.

Part III- Grammar and Structure

- 1- Physics (was/were/are) my best subject at school.
- 2- New cities (built/ are built/ were built) in the desert few years ago.
- 3- I've waited long enough. I'm not waiting (no/ any/ more) longer.
- 4- I am looking forward to (see / seeing / to see) you.
- 5- To catch fire means to (ignite/ put out/ extinguish).
- 6- The younger you are, the easier it is to learn.
- 7- Sound travels at a speed of 333 meters a second.
- 8- A gold coin doesn't corrode when it is buried under the ground
- 9- Does The Dead Sea have a high salt content?
- 10- A description of the structures of viruses has been given.

Part IV – Composition

It is left to the evaluation of the teacher